

Audience questions from the ICMDA webinar with Dr Shari Falkenheimer - Going on mission without leaving home
24 March 2023

1. Katherine: What are some organizations that might be ministering to refugees or internationals in the USA?
2. Angel: If we want to start to do it without leaving the country and to do a mission in Western Africa situations? How can we find them?
3. Anonymous: I also realize that we should look at the long-term impact. Churches usually do not have this vision.
4. Jennifer: Have you advice on how we should best support international medical students and graduates... should we be organised in how we do this?
5. Rod: Do you think it is better to 'specialise' in one culture of origin you can get to know well, or can you work with any culture?
6. Agness: How did you manage to preach the gospel to different nations while at the same time having different schedules with your professional career?
7. Anonymous: How can one overcome racial biases when seeking to share the gospel in a foreign land?
8. Anonymous: Our church is very eager to reach South-Asian international post-graduate students in UNCC (Charlotte, NC) with the gospel. Which are the Christian organizations working inside these colleges? Our church would like to partner with them.
9. Zephania: How can we help the fatherless who are in unreached places?
10. Zodumo: Does ICMDA offer any training on the basics of doing missions eg conduct, sensitivities and support structures for those in missions?
