

Audience questions from the ICMDA webinar with Dr Chris Jenkins - Spiritual warfare and the mind
30 March 2023

1. Claudia: If we are not to judge ourselves, how does this resonate with Romans 12:3 which says: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you. Should we not employ sober judgment to ourselves?
2. Anonymous: Is self-examination un-biblical? I mean examining me in the light of the Word? How does conviction of sin and repentance come if we don't examine ourselves?
3. Jordy: What are the practical steps to destroy those fortresses? Is only knowing the truth enough?
4. Liette: One verse that impressed me against comparing myself to others was John 21:21-22. Peter asked Jesus, 'Lord what about him (John)? Jesus replied: if I want him to live until I come back, what concern is that of yours? You follow me.'
